SRI KSHIPRA GANAPATHI - GANAPATHI WITH FOUR ARMS

Dantakalpalata Pasharatna Kumbhanksho Jvalam!!

Bandhooka Kamaniyabham Dhyaayet

Kshipraganadhipam!!

SIGNIFICANCE: Sri Kshipra Ganapathi is believed to satisfy the devotees immediately. The Lord appears in red hue complexion with four hands. With His main right hand, He holds a broken tusk and His main left hand holds a sprig of Kalpavriksha (wish-fulfilling tree) and with His other hands, He holds a noose and an elephant goad. The trunk of Kshipra Ganapati is curved towards the right and upturned, and holds a ratnakumbha (pot containing precious jewels). Worshipping Kshipra Ganapati form of Lord Ganesh is believed to give knowledge. Meditating every day, the Lord will help devotees granting long-life and fulfills their wishes.
